

Mui Ne – The capital resort of Viet Nam

Mui Ne is the name of a promontory, a famous tourist center of Phan Thiet city, Binh Thuan – Viet Nam, 22km from the center of Phan Thiet city.

Mui Ne is a land where nature is extremely incentives, given the particularly favorable conditions for tourism development with the emerald green sea, iridescent gold sandy stretches untouched, brings an endless inspiration for photographers. Not only nature, Mui Ne also attracts tourists by the historical – cultural relics with ethnic influences such as Kinh, Cham, Chinese... With the natural and culture conditions conducive to the development of tourism, there is more and more numbers of the hotel zones, resorts coming up in Mui Ne. Up to now, the number of senior resorts in Mui Ne has been counted for 70% the number of the resorts in Vietnam. People call Mui Ne the name of “capital of resorts” or “haven of tranquility and relaxation” in Vietnam.

Mui Ne Attractions

Fairy spring (or bamboo stream) is a very special stream with extremely fancy orange red. It is the first priority attraction that leading tourists to Mui Ne. Not only highlighted by fancy watercolors, first springs also attract visitors by thousands of outstanding heaving sand blocks in a lot of strange shapes.

Hon Rom is a small mountain that still untouched being regarded as the sub-resort of Mu Ne. Hon Rom has beautiful peaceful scenery, with sandy beach stretching over 17 km, calm waves and blue pure water. Hon Rom Beach retains its pristine looks which is beneficial from unsettlement and tourism operators. It is hard to put into words the beauty of the place but it is well worth a visit.

Mui ne flying sand hill (or sand hill) is a white sandy beach stretching many kilometers, facing the Fairy springs. Sand Hill is becoming very attractive tourist destination tourists not only by the beautiful landscapes and the unique color of the sand, but also by the very interesting game on the sand like boarding, surfing, skiing on sand, riding the ostriches or playing golf on sand...

Mui Ne Beach felt shallow, fresh pure water with white sandy beach stretched for miles. especially, Mui Ne has many beaches remain pristine looks, not been living and operating by humans. Mui Ne is a tropical beach but less affected by rain storm; the beautiful sceneries, fresh natural environment makes it the ideal resort for visitors. When one talks about the Viet Nam 's tourist attractions, it is deficient if we don't mention Mui Ne as one of the most beautiful beach destinations of Viet Nam

Sites and attractions around Mui Ne

Lotus Lake (or White Lake) is 18km from Hon Rom. In the summer, lotus flowers bloom over covering the lake, incredibly awesome. Ho Sen is indeed a fairy land between the vast white sandy slopes stretching endlessly, providing a pleasant and ideal place for respite and sightseeing. The prince's Castle is well-known and linked to the renowned poet of Vietnam - Han Mac Tu. It is settled at the top of Ba Nai mountain and once being palatial and magnificent. Nowadays, those are remained a bit seems like ruins, but still leaving there a precious taciturn antique nature scenery. PoSahlnu Tower is a relic groups of Shiva temples of the Cham, built in the IX century, situated at 7 kilometers from the Phan Thiet city center. The tower of PoSahlnu is only in small and medium size but it distilled the essence of architecture and decorative arts of the ancient Cham people what has been made up the majesty and mystery of the tower.

Van Thuy Tu Temple is place to display dozens of ordained messages bestowed by king Nguyen. It has been preserved instantly over hundreds of years. Van Thuy Tu Temple is also the burial place, keeping the remains of hundreds of big and small whales for centuries.

Mui Ne Outstanding Specificities

Dong, a reptile living in a cave on the slopes of sand. It is a very famous specialty and characteristic of Mui Ne – Phan Thiet.

Shrimp sauce baked rolled cake is kind of rolled cake in Vietnam Southern, however the processing steps is more sophisticated, requiring more materials and the thinner covers

Phan Thiet fried fish cake soup is a very particular flavor of Phan Thiet, and it is also popular dish in the southern provinces of Vietnam. Can Cake is the rustic bread made from rice milled, stuffing with the sea shrimp, minced meat and baked on a tiny terracotta mold.

Quai Vac Cake is the kind of cake stuffing with sea shrimp, pork, a little fish sauce, salt, pepper, and sugar, those are well sautéed then covered with a laminated wheat dough piece. It has been a popular dish in Phan Thiet that visitors could easily find out in the street. Seafood Salad consists of raw fish salad and melo salad. Raw fish salad is made from deep-bodied herring fish, barreleye fish, or fresh silver sillago fish served with other fresh vegetables and vermicelli.

Red Frog Crab is the famous delicious specialty of the Binh Thuan – Vietnam. The crab is in size of a hand, and half circular shape that looks like a giant bug. Crab meat is delicious, sweet, firm and fragrant.

Baked squid: using the preliminaries exposure under strong sunlight then been baked till seeing the freshness of the white meat which are tasty and jelly. This is the most delicious specialty of Binh Thuan that were not to be missed for any domestic or foreign tourists who travel here.

Source: Get Vietnam Visa